

Corporate Videos

(Please click on image for our current corporate video sample)

The time and scale of a corporate video production can vary greatly and depends on factors such as budget size, crew size and needs.

We realize in this climate that cost effectiveness is key.

At BMB we operate with small but extremely effective crews to achieve this goal.

Once we have an idea of your goals, we work with you to establish a realistic & cost effective budget, scale, time frame and delivery date.

We will guide you through the production process, from pitching ideas to storyboarding, scripting, shooting, editing and even packaging.

Throughout this process we work to deliver a production that maximizes impact for your envisaged goals.

Whether you want to increase your sales or expand awareness of your products, message, profiles or services, we will use our training, expertise and creativity to make the highest impacting production for you.

With almost 10 years in senior management dealing with a corporate clientel (where we consistently hit and surpassed all sales targets), we have an innate understanding of our corporate clients needs and the high-pressure environments you operate in.

We pride ourselves on a commitment to excellence, delivering top class productions on time and within budget.
